With over 90 chart-topping hits, Rock the Country comes to the Regina Performing Arts Centre with six mega tribute acts emulating the likes of Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, Shania Twain, Garth Brooks, Alan Jackson and golden oldie, John Fogerty.

Michael Christopher leads Rock the Country as a singer who has sold more than 40 million records and dominated the charts with over 30 number one singles. Now, 20 years later, he's gone beyond eight million spins at radio, making him the most-played artist of the past decade in any genre of music.

Cassandra Frie is one woman not afraid to take the stage. Garth Brooks and Tim McGraw “Don’t Impress Her Much.” Singing from Shania Twain’s hit list “You’re Still the One” “Whose Bed Have Your Boots Been Under?” and many more, Cassandra Frie will pull no punches as a boot-kicking, knock-your-socks-off Shania.

Later in the night, she also does a great rendition of Faith Hill. Expect the power duo of Tim McGraw and Faith Hill to take to the stage with hits like “This Kiss” or “I Need You” belting from the rafters.

Taking up guitar at age 10 turned out to be a good idea for Steve Hillis. For the past few decades, Steve has fronted bands touring all over North America and is now considered Canada’s number one Garth Brooks tribute act. As the newest member of the “Forever Country” and “Rock the Country” shows, Steve’s professional history and energy on stage complete the show like no other act could.

Jake Stolz fuels the energy of the night doing an incredible tribute to Alan Jackson nailing hit after hit from one of country's most iconic singers. Jake has been in the Canadian Music Business for over 25 years professionally playing all over North America in several bands, primarily as the founder and front man of Appaloosa

It is rare to see so many solid acts in one night. It is also rare to attend a concert where you know every song and you are sure to have a good time. So get off the couch and come down to the Regina Performing Arts Centre on October 24 to ROCK THE COUNTRY.
