VIENNA BOYS' CHOIR COMES TO REGINA

World-Renowned Singing Group Embarks on Canadian Tour

Nothing is as uplifting as the voices of children raised in song, and no group does this better than the Vienna Boys' Choir. Local audiences will have the unique opportunity to hear this world-renowned choir as Regina is one of the stops on the group's cross-Canada tour.

The Vienna Boys' Choir enjoys a long-standing tradition that has its roots in the 13th century. Today, there are 100 choristers between the ages of 10 and 14 from 30 nations who are divided into four touring choirs. These ensembles continue to enthrall audiences across the globe with their purity of tone, distinctive charm, and diverse repertoire that includes Austrian folk songs, classical masterpieces, beloved pop songs, and medieval chants. A Vienna Boys' Choir performance is never just a concert for classical aficionados. It is an enchanting event that will delight music lovers from all walks of life.

The Regina Performing Arts Centre is pleased to present the Vienna Boys' Choir as part of the Centre's fundraising program. A portion of every ticket sold will be used for ongoing facility improvements which will benefit Regina's non-profit cultural organizations.

Glen Butz, manager of the Regina Performing Arts Centre, believes this venture will have a positive impact on all involved. "The Vienna Boys' Choir will bring its talents to a wider audience, the Regina Performing Arts Centre will make a little money for much-needed upgrades, and those who attend the performance will see a world-class choir in their own community," he said.

The Vienna Boys' Choir will stage one performance only at the Regina Performing Arts Centre (1077 Angus Street) on November 19 at 8:00 p.m. Advanced tickets are $48 for adults and $40 for children (12 years of age and under) and can be purchased at the Regina Performing Arts Centre box office or by calling 306-779-2277. Tickets purchased at the door are $55 for adults and $46 for children.
